PREAMBLE

Preamble

The Workman Adventure Compound was created as a place where family and friends could gather, spend time outdoors, try new things, build traditions, and create stories worth retelling.

The WAC is not a corporation, government agency, homeowners association, or organization that takes itself too seriously. It is a family-centered adventure compound built around friendship, recreation, responsibility, humor, and a shared appreciation for the outdoors.

These bylaws preserve the original structure and spirit of the WAC while providing a practical framework for membership, leadership, property use, events, traditions, and the Adventure Program.

The goal is simple:

Protect the property. Respect the people. Participate in the adventure.
Preserve the legacy.

Name and Identity

Section 1. Official Name

The official name of the organization shall be Workman Adventure Compound.

The organization may also be referred to throughout these bylaws and in general conversation as:

- the Workman Adventure Compound
- the WAC
- the Compound

Section 2. Establishment

The Workman Adventure Compound was established in 2009.

Section 3. Official Identity

The WAC name, logo, traditions, Adventure Program, badges, documents, and related materials represent the identity and history of the Workman Adventure Compound.

The original WAC logo shall remain the official organizational logo unless changed by the President and Vice President.

Section 4. Motto

The official WAC motto shall be:

Live the Adventure. Leave the Legacy.

The phrase "Where Memories Become Tradition" may also be used as an official WAC statement.

Purpose

Section 1. General Purpose

The Workman Adventure Compound exists to provide family and friends with a place to gather, experience the outdoors, participate in recreational activities, learn practical skills, and create lasting memories.

Section 2. Core Purposes

The WAC seeks to encourage and support activities involving:

- family and friendship
- outdoor recreation
- hunting and fishing
- conservation and responsible land use
- camping and survival skills
- emergency preparedness
- firearm and archery safety
- ATV, UTV, boating, and equipment safety
- sports, games, and friendly competition
- travel and exploration
- practical life skills
- community service
- personal growth
- humor and fun
- traditions shared across generations

Section 3. Family Legacy

The WAC shall preserve its history while encouraging each generation to create new traditions, experiences, and memories.

The Compound shall not exist only as a reminder of what members once did. It shall remain an active place where members continue to gather, participate, and contribute.

Section 4. Spirit of the WAC

The WAC was created to bring people together, encourage participation, provide opportunities for adventure, and occasionally convince otherwise reasonable adults to do something ridiculous enough to become a permanent family story.

Members are encouraged to laugh, help one another, try new things, and avoid taking ordinary WAC foolishness too seriously.

Membership

Section 1. Eligibility

Membership may include members of the Workman family, the Garvin family, extended family members, close friends, and other individuals approved by the President and Vice President.

Membership is based on personal relationships and trust. It is not available through public application, payment, advertising, or general solicitation.

Section 2. Membership Categories

A. Founding Members

Individuals who were part of the original establishment and early development of the WAC.

B. Family Members

Members of the Workman family, Garvin family, and their descendants or immediate family members.

C. General Members

Friends or extended family members who have been granted ongoing WAC membership.

D. Youth Members

Members under eighteen years of age who participate under the supervision and responsibility of a parent or legal guardian.

E. Guest Participants

Individuals who are invited to visit or participate in a specific WAC activity but have not been granted continuing membership.

Section 3. Membership Approval

Membership shall be granted by the President and Vice President.

Advice or recommendations from Board members or existing members may be considered but are not required.

Section 4. Membership Privileges

Depending on access level and approval, members may be permitted to:

- attend WAC gatherings and events
- participate in approved recreational activities
- use approved areas of the property
- participate in the WAC Adventure Program
- earn badges, points, and ranks
- access member resources
- submit adventure completions
- contribute ideas and recommendations
- participate in WAC traditions and projects

Membership does not create any ownership interest in the property, buildings, equipment, organization, or assets of the WAC.

Section 5. Member Responsibilities

Members are expected to:

- respect the property
- follow all safety requirements
- follow the directions of the President, Vice President, or designated activity leaders
- supervise their children and guests
- clean up after themselves
- avoid damaging property or equipment
- report damage, hazards, or unsafe conditions
- participate responsibly
- treat other members and guests with reasonable respect
- preserve the general spirit of the WAC

Section 6. Membership Suspension or Revocation

Membership or access privileges may be suspended, limited, or revoked by the President and Vice President.

Reasons may include, but are not limited to:

- unsafe conduct
- serious or repeated rule violations
- property damage
- theft
- dishonesty
- harassment or threatening behavior
- misuse of firearms, vehicles, or equipment
- bringing unauthorized guests
- interfering with hunting or property management
- conduct inconsistent with the purpose of the WAC
- becoming such a persistent pain in the ass that continued membership is no longer worth the trouble

The President and Vice President are not required to conduct a hearing, hold a vote, or provide a written explanation.

Section 7. Guests

Members may not assume they have permission to invite guests.

Guest approval must be obtained from the President, Vice President, or another person specifically authorized to approve guests.

Members are responsible for the conduct and supervision of their guests.

Annual and Special Meetings

Section 1. Annual Meeting

The regular annual meeting of the Workman Adventure Compound shall generally take place during the July Fourth weekend.

The preferred meeting date shall be Saturday unless another date is selected by the President and Vice President.

The annual meeting may be conducted formally, informally, around a fire, during a cookout, between yard games, or under any other circumstances considered sufficiently official by the President.

Section 2. Purpose of the Annual Meeting

The annual meeting may include:

- updates regarding the property
- planned projects and improvements
- upcoming events
- Adventure Program updates
- new members or changes in membership
- safety concerns
- equipment needs
- hunting or land-management plans
- recognition of member achievements
- discussion of traditions
- complaints that will be politely heard and possibly ignored

Section 3. Special Meetings

Special meetings may be called by the President or Vice President whenever necessary.

Section 4. Notice

Reasonable notice of a formal meeting should be provided through text message, email, the WAC app, social media group, verbal communication, smoke signal, or another method likely to reach the intended members.

For significant formal business, at least five days' notice should be provided when practical.

Section 5. Informal Discussions

Not every WAC discussion constitutes a formal meeting.

Conversations around the fire, in the garage, on a trail, or while working on a project may influence decisions but do not automatically create a binding Board action.

Board of Directors

Section 1. Board Responsibility

The Board of Directors exists to support the overall direction, traditions, management, and long-term success of the WAC.

Daily decisions and property operations remain under the authority of the President and Vice President.

Section 2. Board Size

The Board shall consist of no fewer than three and no more than five officers unless changed by the President and Vice President.

Section 3. Compensation

Board members shall receive no salary or financial compensation.

They may receive food, beverages, appreciation, occasional recognition, and the satisfaction of being blamed for decisions they may not have actually made.

Section 4. Board Authority

The Board may:

- provide advice and recommendations
- assist with projects and property management
- help organize events
- support safety and operational planning
- help administer the Adventure Program
- represent the WAC when specifically authorized
- vote on matters submitted by the President or Vice President

The Board shall not overrule the President or Vice President.

Section 5. Board Meetings

The Board should meet at least annually unless excused by the President or Vice President. Additional meetings may be held as needed.

Section 6. Quorum

A quorum shall consist of the President and Vice President.

No additional attendance shall be required to conduct official WAC business. Guidance from other Board members may be accepted, encouraged, and occasionally followed.

Section 7. Voting

The Board may vote on recommendations, proposals, events, projects, membership matters, and other WAC business.

All Board votes remain subject to final approval by the President and Vice President. A unanimous Board vote may still be rejected.

This is not an oversight. It is part of the original WAC system of government.

Section 8. Terms of Service

The President and Vice President are lifetime appointments unless changed due to:

- death
- permanent incapacity
- divorce
- transfer of ownership
- voluntary resignation
- another extraordinary circumstance determined by the owners of the WAC

Other Board officers serve at the pleasure of the President and Vice President. Their appointment may continue as long as they remain supportive, reasonably useful, and on speaking terms with WAC leadership.

Section 9. Vacancies

Board vacancies shall be filled by appointment of the President and Vice President. No election shall be required.

Section 10. Resignation or Removal

A Board member may resign at any time by notifying the President or Vice President.

A Board member may be removed at any time by the President and Vice President. A lengthy investigation, parliamentary hearing, impeachment trial, or cable-news panel shall not be required.

Officers and Duties

Section 1. Officers

The Board may include the following officers:

- President
- Vice President
- Assistant to the President
- Assistant to the Vice President
- Sergeant at Arms

Additional titles or positions may be created when useful, entertaining, or necessary.

Section 2. President

The President shall:

- oversee the general direction of the WAC
- manage day-to-day operations
- make final decisions regarding property use
- approve or deny members and guests
- oversee WAC events and projects
- interpret these bylaws
- approve changes to Adventure requirements
- approve badges and awards
- appoint or remove Board members
- settle disputes
- exercise veto authority
- remind everyone that he wrote the original book and therefore retains broad interpretive authority

Section 3. Vice President

The Vice President shall:

- share authority with the President
- assist with general management
- approve or deny members and guests
- oversee events, projects, and traditions
- provide final approval on major decisions
- exercise veto authority
- prevent the President from turning every small idea into a major construction project whenever possible

The President and Vice President together constitute the final governing authority of the WAC.

Section 4. Assistant to the President

The Assistant to the President shall:

- provide advice and support
- assist with projects and operations
- vote on Board recommendations
- represent the President when authorized

- assist with events and activities
- exercise reasonable authority over general membership when acting on behalf of WAC leadership

Section 5. Assistant to the Vice President

The Assistant to the Vice President shall:

- provide advice and support
- assist with planning and member coordination
- vote on Board recommendations
- represent the Vice President when authorized
- help organize WAC events and traditions
- assist in maintaining order when the President and Assistant to the President begin encouraging one another

Section 6. Sergeant at Arms

The Sergeant at Arms shall:

- support the security of the WAC
- help enforce rules and safety requirements
- assist in maintaining order during meetings and events
- report serious concerns to the President and Vice President
- help protect WAC traditions, members, and property

The Sergeant at Arms shall not actually possess independent law-enforcement authority merely because the title sounds official.

Property Authority and Use

Section 1. Property Ownership

The WAC property remains privately owned.

Membership, Board status, participation, labor, donations, or badge achievement do not create ownership rights or a legal interest in the property.

Section 2. Final Property Authority

The property owners retain final authority regarding:

- access
- guests
- buildings
- trails
- hunting
- firearms
- vehicles
- equipment
- projects
- land management
- events
- storage
- camping
- fires
- construction
- maintenance
- safety restrictions

Section 3. Restricted Areas

Buildings, rooms, sheds, machinery, vehicles, blinds, tree stands, tools, firearms, equipment, and other areas may be declared private or restricted.

Members may use only those areas and items for which permission has been granted.

Section 4. Projects

No member may begin construction, remove trees, modify trails, install equipment, alter a building, dig, burn, permanently store property, or begin another significant project without approval.

Saying “I thought it would be okay” shall not constitute approval.

Section 5. Personal Property

Items left at the WAC remain the responsibility of the owner unless the President or Vice President agrees to accept responsibility for them.

The WAC is not responsible for loss, theft, weather damage, animal damage, equipment failure, or another member believing an unattended item was communal.

Safety and Conduct

Section 1. General Safety

All members and guests shall follow applicable laws, posted rules, verbal instructions, equipment requirements, and reasonable safety practices.

Section 2. Activity Rules

Separate rules may be adopted for:

- hunting
- firearm use
- archery
- ATV and UTV operation
- boating
- swimming
- fires
- tools and machinery
- youth activities
- alcohol use
- camping
- special events

Section 3. Supervision of Minors

Parents and legal guardians remain responsible for the supervision, behavior, safety, and participation of their children.

The presence of another adult does not automatically transfer that responsibility.

Section 4. Alcohol and Impairment

No person may operate vehicles, boats, firearms, machinery, or dangerous equipment while impaired.

Anyone whose judgment, balance, behavior, or decision-making has become questionable may be removed from an activity.

Section 5. Damage

Anyone who damages WAC property or equipment must report it promptly.

Depending on the circumstances, the responsible person may be required to assist with repairs or replacement. Accidents may be forgiven. Hiding them usually will not be.

Section 6. Emergency Authority

During an emergency, any designated responsible adult may stop an activity, direct members to a safe location, request emergency assistance, or take other reasonable action.

The President and Vice President retain authority to suspend activities whenever conditions are unsafe.

Section 7. Zombie Provision

Any member or guest who is bitten by a zombie, becomes infected, or displays unmistakable signs of joining the undead shall immediately lose access to food storage, shelter, vehicles, and the main cabin.

During a zombie apocalypse, individuals should not travel to the WAC expecting supplies, protection, or permanent refuge unless specifically invited.

This section remains in effect because removing it would be irresponsible.

Committees and Special Assignments

Section 1. Committees

The President and Vice President may create committees or working groups as needed.

Possible committees may include:

- events
- food and hospitality
- hunting and land management
- safety
- property projects
- Adventure Program
- tournaments and games
- historical preservation
- technology and app support
- cleanup
- emergency preparedness

Section 2. Committee Leadership

Committee chairs shall be appointed by the President and Vice President. Recommendations from the Board may be considered.

Section 3. Committee Authority

Committees may plan, recommend, and carry out approved activities.

They may not independently obligate the WAC, spend significant funds, alter property, or create permanent rules without authorization.

WAC Adventure Program

Section 1. Purpose

The WAC Adventure Program exists to encourage members to spend time together, step outside their comfort zones, learn new skills, participate in unique experiences, and create lasting memories.

Section 2. Participation

Participation is voluntary.

Members may complete as many or as few adventures as they choose. No member is required to complete adventures that are unsafe, illegal, medically inappropriate, or fundamentally incompatible with their circumstances.

Section 3. Requirements

Adventure requirements shall be established through the official WAC Adventure Guide, WAC Adventure App, or another approved source.

Requirements may not be changed, combined, substituted, or grandfathered without approval.

Section 4. Submission and Approval

Members must submit adventure completions through the approved process.

Submissions may require:

- photographs
- dates
- descriptions
- witnesses
- documents
- scores
- receipts
- another reasonable form of verification

A completion is not official until approved by an authorized WAC administrator.

Section 5. Badges, Points, and Ranks

Approved completions may result in:

- badges
- points
- ranks
- recognition
- inclusion in WAC records
- bragging rights of varying legitimacy

Section 6. Final Authority

The President retains final authority over Adventure Program interpretations, requirements, approvals, exceptions, and disputes. This authority may be delegated to approved administrators.

Records and Resources

Section 1. Official Records

The WAC may maintain records involving:

- members
- events
- Adventure Program submissions
- badge approvals
- ranks and points
- meeting decisions
- property projects
- historical photographs
- traditions
- important documents

Section 2. WAC Adventure App

The WAC Adventure App may serve as the primary platform for:

- membership access
- Adventure Program information
- submissions
- approvals
- events
- member progress
- historical materials
- resources
- official announcements

Section 3. Historical Preservation

Members are encouraged to provide photographs, stories, dates, captions, records, and other materials that help preserve WAC history.

The WAC may edit and organize submitted material for clarity while attempting to preserve the original story and meaning.

Section 4. Privacy

Private member information shall not be publicly distributed without permission except when disclosure is legally required.

Amendments

Section 1. Amendment Authority

These bylaws may be amended by agreement of the President and Vice President. No general membership vote shall be required.

Section 2. Recommendations

Board members and general members may recommend amendments.

Recommendations should identify:

- the section involved
- the proposed change
- the reason for the change

Section 3. Effective Date

An amendment becomes effective when approved by the President and Vice President and recorded in the official bylaws or WAC resources.

Section 4. Interpretation

Questions regarding the meaning or application of these bylaws shall be resolved by the President and Vice President.

Their interpretation shall be final unless they later decide they were wrong, which they remain fully authorized to deny.

Founding Leadership and Family Membership

Section 1. Founding Leadership

The original leadership of the Workman Adventure Compound included:

Office	Original Officer
President	Paul Workman
Vice President	Holly Workman
Assistant to the President	Keith Garvin
Assistant to the Vice President	Becky Garvin
Sergeant at Arms	William "Joe" Workman

Section 2. Original Family Members

The original family members associated with the establishment and early years of the WAC included:

- Paul Workman
- Holly Workman
- Hannah Workman
- Paige Workman
- Keith Garvin
- Becky Garvin
- Katelyn Garvin
- Ben Garvin

These members formed the original family group around which the WAC was created and developed.

Section 3. Later Family Members

Additional family members may become part of the WAC over time through marriage, birth, adoption, close family connection, or approval by the President and Vice President.

Jake Workman shall be recognized as a family member of the WAC, but not as an original founding member.

William "Joe" Workman served as the original Sergeant at Arms and remains an important part of the WAC's founding history.

Section 4. Recognition of Founding Contributions

The WAC shall preserve the historical contributions of those who helped establish, support, and develop the Compound during its earliest years.

Formal membership categories may change over time, but those founding contributions remain part of the permanent WAC history.

Succession and Continuity

Section 1. Long-Term Purpose

The WAC should continue as a place for family, friends, outdoor experiences, shared traditions, and future generations.

Section 2. Heirs and Successors

References to heirs or future leaders in WAC materials express the desire that the family legacy continue.

They do not independently replace property deeds, estate documents, trusts, wills, ownership agreements, or other legally controlling documents.

Section 3. Future Leadership

Future leadership should protect:

- the family-centered character of the WAC
- responsible property use
- access for approved family and friends
- the WAC Adventure Program
- historical records
- established traditions
- the principle that the WAC exists for people, not merely property

Section 4. Legacy

The success of the WAC shall not be measured only by buildings, equipment, improvements, or completed projects.

It shall be measured by whether people continue to gather, participate, laugh, learn, help one another, create memories, and return.

WORKMAN ADVENTURE COMPOUND

*Our sanctuary.
Our glue.
Our repository for memories.
Our family.*
